The Cissy collection offers more than just comfortable seating – it invites you to relax. Soft upholstery, gentle curves of bent wood, and a focus on ergonomics create a sense of harmony where both body and mind can relax for a moment.

The lounge chair, available with a low or high backrest, is complemented by a subtle ottoman that elevates the seating experience even further. Every element of the collection is united by precise craftsmanship and timeless elegance, making it easy to adapt to various settings – from home interiors to hotel lobbies or serene workspaces. Cissy is a collection designed for moments that deserve true comfort.
